

WELCOME TO ICELAND

We organize: Group tours | Self-drive packages | City breaks

Terra Nova is a leading incoming tour operator in Iceland. We offer over 40 years of valuable experience in the market, excellent service, and competitive prices. Terra Nova is a whole selling company offering the whole range of travel possibilities in Iceland. With us you are in strong and reliable hands.

Iceland in all seasons

Iceland is really a destination for all seasons. You can visit in the summer enjoying the beautiful nature during the long days of summer and the midnight sun or you can come in the winter to hunt for the northern lights and enjoy all the magnificent winter adventures that Iceland has to offer.

City Breaks for groups or individual travelers

City breaks allow you to discover different sides of Iceland as you visit the city and explore the main attractions nearby. We make all the necessary arrangements for our clients to enjoy everything Reykjavik has to offer and to choose from the various excursions available from Reykjavik.

Group tours

Terra Nova offers a broad spectrum of group tours. Most of our tours are tailor-made to fit our customers' needs at each time. We offer bus tours for groups of all sizes with accommodation in all categories. The emphasis is on classic sightseeing that allows you to experience both the nature and the culture of Iceland, travelling in a comfortable way. We are happy to create and/or adapt tours according to the special interests of our clients.

Fly & Drive packages for individual travelers

Fly & drive packages are an absolute best-selling product in Iceland for both summer and winter visitors. Self-drive is a great way to get to know Iceland and experience it on your own with your friends or your family exactly as you prefer. We provide the rental car, pre-booked accommodation of different categories and a comprehensive route description with suggestions of excursions and visits.
